

The Capital Journal's Great Clubbing Offer With Premier Farm Paper

Each and every reader of any periodical or newspaper has chosen in his or her own mind a periodical or paper that was considered better than all the rest. If you pick up that article you know exactly where to look for the news you want. Upon a daily sheet the front page is reserved for the news of the world. Further on you find that gleaned from the separate localities surrounding the news office. Other space is reserved for the advertising, maritime, society, editorial and other news. Just so runs the paper of your choice. You consider the writers of that paper just a little better than those of the other papers or you wouldn't have the paper. You consider the make up and general character of that special sheet also of a better grade.

Now we, The Daily Capital Journal, have been in the position of a subscriber in regard to agricultural papers. We have tried to select that periodical which to our nation, stands at the zenith in the nature of a farm paper. We have held a clubbing arrangement with the Western Farmer for some time past. Since we accepted the clubbing offer the Western Farmer has so far exceeded our expectations, and continued to grow better, that we are proud to still continue to offer it to our subscribers.

Remember, a copy of the Daily Capital Journal and the semi-monthly Western Farmer for the price of the single subscription to the Daily Capital Journal. This offer applies to old and new subscribers alike.

The price of the Daily Capital Journal is $3.00 per year by mail. That of the Western Farmer is $1.00 per year. The two papers may be had for the single price of $3.00.

Remember also, this is not where we are going to give you something for nothing. No man or firm on earth could do that and stay with it any length of time. But we have set aside a certain sum from the subscription price that sum goes to the clubbing arrangement.

We believe that the readers of the Daily Capital Journal are interested in farm matters, also that if they pick up a farm paper they want to learn something. The staff upon the Western Farmer are considered experts in their line. These are the kind of men from whom we care to learn.

If you want to get out of the old rut and learn other experienced men's views on fruit, dairying, farming, gardening, poultry and berry raising besides other items of general interest in agriculture, then you want a paper like the Western Farmer in your home.

In the Daily Capital Journal the subscriber will receive a daily newspaper that is without a peer. The Capital Journal covers all the news of Marion and Polk counties, having the largest number and best collection of country correspondents of any newspaper in this section. The correspondents send in the items from your own neighborhood. The news of the city and of the county court house is gathered and carefully and accurately compiled, so that the subscriber receives each day, in addition to the telegraphic country news, a complete resume of the county seat happenings.

Wise Restraint Evident In Stock Speculation

New York, Jan. 26.—The abatement in stock exchange activity so noticeable in December has continued thus far throughout January. The principal reasons were twofold: first, the wise restraint upon speculation imposed by bankers in order to avoid dangerous inflation, and second, the continued influx of securities from abroad which fully taxed our absorbing powers. The necessity for checking hazardous advances in the war industrial was beyond dispute, especially in those solely devoted to munitions, whose values had in some instances risen utterly beyond reason. Weeks ago the rush of war orders moderated because the demand was largely satisfied by early orders, and the belligerents themselves are now equipped for production at much lower prices than American makers care to accept. As to the return of American securities, that has proceeded upon an increasing scale ever since announcement of the British mobilization plan; each mail steamer bringing large quantities of former foreign holdings, generally sold on private account. How long this influx will continue is impossible to determine; but the control of selling on British account is so highly concentrated that the market for Americans will be thoroughly stabilized, and no sacrifices need be expected by those in control of British holdings. The most significant result of this movement will be the permanent decline of London as a market for American shares, for the bulk of those returned will never go back. The United States will, in all probability, permanently retain the railroad bonds and stocks purchased from Great Britain, Germany and Holland, also a large portion of the industrial which are being returned. This does not mean that foreign capital will permanently desert the United States, but it will be a long time before Europe has money to spare for investment here, and it is questionable if it will ever come with the same freedom as in the past. As a result, much of the interest and dividends formerly sent abroad will stay here, and be utilized for home development. It should be borne in mind that this homeward movement of American investments occurs at a time when we are turning our attention to the opportunities abroad. We are displaying great anxiety for a larger foreign trade, and to secure it we must be prepared to buy as well as sell, to lend and invest our funds abroad much more freely than we ever contemplated before. The United States has met a turning point in its career, the importance of which is not yet sufficiently appreciated by American investors. This turn in our foreign development was bound under any circumstances to occur in due course of time, but the war materially hastened the date and greatly enlarged the opportunity. So, if New York desires to raise its prestige as a foreign financial center, it must be prepared to take a more active interest in foreign investments, in foreign affairs and in cultivating foreign trade; not by force or antagonism, but by creating friendly and mutually profitable interchanges.

Hesitation in the stock market was further encouraged by threatened difficulties with Mexico and the fear of prolongation of the war, and some disturbing discussion may also be precipitated should England declare a blockade. Another factor which prevents a full revival of confidence is the uncertainty of the action of congress in regard to Mexico, preparedness, public revenue, shipping and other legislation. So far, however, it must be acknowledged that congress has kept remarkably cool, considering the intensity of present day problems; and up to the present time the administration has experienced little embarrassment from congressional opposition. General business continues fairly active and satisfactory. The revival which began in October and November still continues. It is illustrated by the extraordinary activity in the steel industry, which seems unchecked by the prolonged rise in prices. Concerning the universal prosperity of the industry, it is unnecessary to repeat familiar facts. Such of the regular industries as are in the way of securing war contracts, continue making large profits and speculation in these shows considerable activity. The railroad situation is steadily improving in various respects, and the freight embargo is in fair way of being broken. Forty-six roads reported earnings of $44,000,000 in December, an increase of $20,000,000 over last year. The disposition to afford the railroads fair play on the part of the public appears to be increasing, and this fact in connection with improved net earnings has materially stimulated the demand for better class railroad shares and greatly facilitated new financing. For nearly all high grade securities, especially bonds, there has been a good investment demand, and new home issues of a desirable character have been readily taken, notwithstanding the large influx of securities from abroad. It cannot be too often borne in mind that our present prosperity is vastly more due to a rich harvest and good prices than to war orders. Our total merchandise exports for 1915 were about $3,500,000,000. If one-third of this amount represented munition contracts, which is a liberal estimate, it can be seen that the bulk is small compared with the total domestic trade of the country. Our crops were valued at over $10,000,000,000; our railroads rank next to agriculture in importance; our industrial plants and commercial and financial institutions also run into enormous figures in their

Had Lung Trouble and Expected to Die

The many recoveries brought about by Eckman's Alternative are attracting wide attention. Read about this case.

33 B St., Keyser, W. Va.

"Gentlemen—I was taken sick in November, 1908. I grew steadily worse. Had two consultations. The verdict was the fever had affected my lungs and that my case was hopeless, only gave me two months to live. My physician had tried most all kinds of treatment and none did me any good, so he asked my husband if he objected to his trying a proprietary medicine. I began your Alternative. I was in bed from November 30, 1908, until February 25, 1909, and was thought dying several times. Today I am healthier and stronger than ever." (Abbreviated.)

(Signed) MRS. H. K. BILLEY. Eckman's Alternative is most efficacious in bronchial catarrh and severe throat and lung affections and up-building the system. Contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs. Accept no substitutes. Small size, 12c; regular size, 12c. Sold by leading druggists. Write for booklet of recoveries. Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK PRETTY, YOUNG

Grandma's Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens So Naturally That No-Body Can Tell

Almost everyone knows the Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, itching or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Weth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.

Mrs. Cook is reputed to be wealthy having inherited a large amount from her late husband, a Sacramento coal dealer. Cook made his home in Sacramento after retiring from the saloon business here.

Polk Republicans Have Real "Love Feast"

Independence, Or., Jan. 26.—The republicans of Polk county met at Dallas Saturday afternoon for a "love feast." The principal business of the gathering was to formulate a plan to arouse enthusiasm in the coming presidential election.

Attorney B. F. Swope has already announced his intention of becoming a candidate for district attorney. Dr. Charles H. Dunsmore, a Presbyterian minister of this city, seeks the nomination for county clerk. J. S. Bohannon a democrat is candidate for county commissioner. Am Robinson, Jr., will again be a candidate on the democratic ticket for county clerk, to succeed himself. W. J. Clarke, editor of the Independence Enterprise, will be a candidate on the republican ticket for state representative.

If the United States has incurred the contempt of the world, as Colonel Roosevelt says, why should the king of Greece appeal to us in protest against the conduct of the allies.

Oregon Schools Will Celebrate Burbank Day

Tuesday, March 7, will be observed by the public schools of Oregon with appropriate exercises celebrating the birth of Luther Burbank. Superintendent J. A. Churchill announces this fact in the 1916 Industrial Club bulletin now being prepared in his office and which will be ready for distribution by the 15th of February. This bulletin will contain a personal letter from Mrs. Burbank to the Industrial Club members of Oregon.

"It seems particularly fitting," said Superintendent Churchill, in connection with our agricultural and industrial club work in the public schools, that we should have a Burbank Day and with proper preparation and exercises familiarize the boys and girls with the man who has accomplished so much for human progress. When farm boys learn that soil chemistry, horticulture, stock breeding, etc., require brain activity as well as brawn, law and medicine, and that Burbank is classed with such men as Edison, and has an income greater than most lawyers, they will hesitate before rushing to the cities.

Walker Whiteside Is Coming to Grand In First Production

The coming of Walker Whiteside and his distinguished company of players to this city for the first time in several years is looked forward to with keen interest by playgoers who appreciate the best the stage affords for their dramatic entertainment. Mr. Whiteside will present at the Grand theatre on Friday, January 28, his magnificent production of the strange and powerful play "The Typhoon," in which he has appeared throughout the country with unbounded success. His company this season is declared to be the best that has ever been assembled for his support, and since every member of the cast has been selected by the star himself, it is likely to be as nearly perfect as careful judgment and discrimination might make it. Miss Lillian Cavanaugh will be seen as Ilona the Berlin beauty, who enchases the young Japanese diplomat, impersonated by Mr. Whiteside, and leads him to his destruction only to forfeit her own life.

CATARRH CAUSED BY A GERM

Must Be Destroyed Before Catarrh Itself Can Be Cured. Wonderful Results From Breathing Medicated Air.

Medicine that acts on the blood alone will never cure catarrh. And neither will the sprays, douches, lotions, creams and other temporary reliefs that so many catarrh victims make a habit of using. To cure catarrh so it won't come back you must first drive from your body the millions of germs that are flourishing in the inner recesses of your nose and throat and are causing the disease.

There is a preparation used to do this called Hyomei (pronounced High-oh-mey). Hyomei is a germ killing vaporized air formed from the purest oil of Eucalyptus combined with other healing and antibiotic ingredients. You breathe Hyomei through the mouth and nose by means of a little hard rubber inhaler which druggists furnish with it. This medicated germicidal air penetrates into every fold and crevice of the mucous membrane of your nose and throat, kills the catarrh germs that lodge there, soothes, reduces and heals the swollen inflamed membranes, stops the discharge and opens the clogged nose and air passages in a truly wonderful way. It gives blessed relief in five minutes from catarrhal distress of every kind and if you make a practice of breathing Hyomei for a few minutes each day for just a few weeks not only will all the symptoms of catarrh vanish but the disease itself will be a thing of the past. No one need try or buy Hyomei on pure faith. Daniel J. Fry and many other leading druggists in Salem and vicinity sell it with sure positive guarantee that if most sure catarrh of that the money paid for it will be refunded. Hyomei is very inexpensive and with this protecting guarantee behind your purchase there is absolutely no reason why any sufferer from catarrh should not give it a fair trial.
